Auditions

Dancers must attend auditions to be a part of the Showstoppers Program. This gives the teachers an opportunity to see the dancers perform with other dancers their same age and skill level.

Auditions are meant to be taken seriously, but it is not meant to be a stressful event for the dancers. They are to treat it just like regular class and work their hardest!

Audition forms and fees ($100) are due at the time of auditions.

Tuesday, June 6, 2017

5:30-7:00 – Jazz Audition

7:30-9:00 – Tap Audition

Class Uniform

Ballet and Pointe Class– Solid colored leotard and pink or black tights and pink ballet shoes (absolutely NO baggy clothes - ballet skirts optional - hair MUST be in a bun)

Tap Class and Rehearsal – Dance attire and black tie tap shoes

Jazz and Contemporary Class and Rehearsal – Dance attire (NO BAGGY CLOTHING) AND Tan Bloch SO407

Hip Hop Class and Rehearsal - Street Style Clothing and Tennis Shoes (refrain from wearing your jazz class uniform - come looking like a hip hop dancer - you will not be able to take class if you are not wearing tennis shoes)

Choreography Workshops

The faculty would like to get a head start on choreography for the 2017-18 dance season. After dancers are placed, we will set an August dance schedule. These rehearsals will be crucial for dancers to attend because the goal is to learn all of their choreography for their dances during these 3-4 weeks of rehearsals.

Other Possible Expenses

Show tights, competition make up and jewelry, travel arrangements to competition.

Optional Activities

Winter Workshop Fee $255-$280 per dancer

Summer Master Class Workshop - $150-200
